NOTICES FOR 6 NOV 2022

CALLING A NEW MINISTER TO JOHNSONVILLE UNITING CHURCH

The Parish Council, on the recommendation of the Ministry Settlement Board, has invited a well-qualified candidate to meet the congregation on Saturday 12 November 2022 at an afternoon tea, and to preach at Johnsonville Uniting Church on Sunday 13 November 2022.

The Sunday service on 13 November 2022 will be followed by a special congregation meeting to vote on offering the candidate a Call to become the next minister of Johnsonville Uniting Church. Only members or associate members at the meeting are entitled to vote. Voting will be by ballot. Votes will be counted and reported back to the meeting and the candidate will be advised at the same time. More details about the voting process will follow.

It is the convention within the Presbyterian Church of Aotearoa/New Zealand that the anonymity of the candidate is preserved at this point in proceedings, so that they can manage their responsibilities to their own parish. We ask that you respect this convention.

The afternoon tea to be held at 2.30pm on 12 November 2022 is an opportunity for all Parish members to meet the candidate. Please bring a contribution for afternoon tea. We are looking for volunteers to arrive a little earlier to make tea and coffee and set up the hall and to clean up afterwards. More information on the candidate will be available later.

Rev Reg Weeks: Will be on leave until the 27th of Nov.

Onslow Fibrecrafts Guild – Presents “Audrey’s Retrospective” and “Legacy Challenge” an exhibition in memory of the late Audrey Sangster.

16-21 November, 10:00-3:00pm at the Collective Community Hub 1/33 Johnsonville Rd, Wellington. Some items will be for sale.

Power Point - If you have Power Point skills and would like to join the Power Point Roster. We are very short of people to help this year, please contact Andrew Donovan

Lions Christmas Cakes

Sandra’s Lions Club is again selling Christmas Cakes for $20 this year. Our supplier has changed to Couplands who have a very good name in the bakery business. If you would like to support our fundraising for community work please contact Sandra on 021 065 0232, 478 6827 or email sgaelic@gmail.com. My Club's latest donation has been $26,000 to the Children's Hospital Playscape (Rehabilitation area) and for two beds at $5,000 each so we need to replenish our bank account to do more good work in our community and surrounding area where required!

Parish pantry: Our local food banks welcome instant coffee, tea, soap (especially cakes of soap) and body wash, shampoo, conditioner, toilet paper, toothpaste, pasta sauce, tinned tomatoes, spaghetti and baked beans and lunchbox snacks, as well as woman’s feminine products especially pads. Talk to Bev Donovan

Fundraising table - The Fundraising table is available again each Sunday for your donations of surplus garden produce or flowers and other good quality items.

Touchstone – November edition is available in the foyer, please feel free to grab yourself a copy.

Special request from foodbanks: - Apart from the usual items needed by the foodbanks they also have a special request for tinned vegetables, for example, tinned peas, beetroot, whole kernel corn, etc. For more info please talk to Bev Donovan.

PCANZ National Leaders Conference - We are excited to have over 240 participants registered for the One Conference here in Wellington at St Johns in the city November 17-19. We want to highlight a special offer for those who live in Wellington, the opportunity to attend any of the four main sessions of the conference for just $5 per session. More details in the Cuppa. Three members of JUC parish will be attending this event.

Greening your Garden - Working with native plants - Join Ngaio Union Church and the Ngaio Crofton Downs Residents Association as we welcome Tim Park and members of the Ōtari-Wilton's Bush team for a practical, all-age, workshop:

'Greening your garden – working with native plants'

Saturday 5th November, 10.30-11.30am
at Ngaio Union Church, cnr Kenya St and Crofton Rd
[alongside the Recycling Collection Station]

Together let's celebrate the opening of your new Porirua community hospice – Te Whare Rānui, the home of light and warmth.

As a valued member of our Mary Potter Hospice whānau, we warmly invite you to visit Te Whare Rānui. We are excited to hold a community open day and would love for you to join us. Te Whare Rānui Community Open Day

Saturday 12 November, 9.30am-12.30pm (9.30am for blessing of taonga)
10 Awatea Street, Rānui, Porirua. Free entry and parking. Bring your whānau and friends – all are welcome. Join us for a sausage sizzle, light refreshments, craft activities, live music, performances and more information about volunteering and working for Mary Potter Hospice. Our sincere thanks for the generosity of many local trusts, organisations, businesses and individuals who have made Te Whare Rānui possible. We look forward to seeing you there

The Church is wherever

The Church is wherever God's people are praising,
Knowing they're wanted and loved by their Lord
The church is wherever Christ's followers are trying
To live and to share out the good news of God.

The church is wherever God's people are loving,
wherever all are forgiven and start once again,
where all are accepted, whatever their background,
whatever their past and whatever their pain.

The Church is wherever God's people are seeking To reach out and touch folk wherever they are conveying the Gospel, its joy and its comfort,
to challenge, refresh and excite and inspire.

CH 4 522 The Bard of Armagh

Give thanks for life

Give thanks for life, the measure of our days,
mortal, we pass through beauty that decays,
Yet sing to God our hope, our love our praise:

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Give thanks for those, whose lives shone with a light
caught from the Christ-flame, gleaming through the night,
who touched the truth, who burned for what is right

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Give thanks for all, our living and our dead,
thanks for the love by which our life is fed,
a love not changed by time or death or dread:

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Give thanks for hope that, like the seed of grain lying in darkness, does its life retain to rise in glory, growing green again.

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Oh When the Saints

Oh when the saints go marching in
Oh when the saints go marching in.
Oh Lord I want to be in that number
When the saints go marching in

Oh when they sing the Saviour's praise
Oh when they sing the Saviour's praise
Oh Lord I want to be among the number
When they sing the Lord's praise.

Oh when the saints go marching in
Oh when the saints go marching in
Oh Lord I want to be in that number
When the saints go marching in.

I sing a song of the saints of God

I sing a song of the saints of God

Patient and brave and true,

Who toiled and fought and lived and died

For the Lord they loved and knew;

And one was a doctor and one was a queen

And one was a shepherdess on the green.

They were all of them saints of God; and I mean

God helping to be one too.

They loved their Lord so good and dear,

And his love made them strong;

And they followed the right, for Jesus sake

The whole of their good lives long;

And one was a soldier, and one was a priest

And one was slain by a fierce wild beast;

And there's not any reason no, not the least,

Why I shouldn't be one too.

They lived not only in ages past,

There are hundred of thousands still;

The world is bright with joyous saints

Who love to do Jesus' will;

You can meet them in school, or in lanes, or at sea,

In church, or in trains, or in shops, or at tea;

For the saints of God began just like me

And I mean to be one too.

When we walk with the Lord

When we walk with the Lord, in the light of His Word,
What a glory he sheds on our way!
While we do his good will, He abides with us still
And with all who will trust and obey.
*Trust and obey! For there's no other way
To be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey.*

Not a shadow can rise, not a cloud in the skies,
But his smile quickly drives it away:
Not a doubt nor a fear, not a sigh nor a tear,
Can abide while we trust and obey.
*Trust and obey! For there's no other way
To be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey.*

Not a burden we bear, not a sorrow we share,
But our toil he doth richly repay:
Not a grief nor a loss, not a frown nor a cross,
But is blessed if we trust or obey.
*Trust and obey! For there's no other way
To be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey.*

Then in fellowship sweet, we will sit at His feet,
Or we'll walk by His side in the way;
What He says we will do, where he sends we will go;
Never fear, only trust and obey.
*Trust and obey! For there's no other way
To be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey.*
